Ref:	Procs No. SOW02-16021/129/2021-D1 dated 8-2-2022 of the Director, Social Welfare and Nodal Officer for JVD Schemes

You are aware that vide reference cited, detailed schedule was given for completion of preparatory activities before release of next instalment of fee under Jagananna Vidya Deevena to eligible students/mothers by the Hon'ble CM on March 7, 2022.

As per the social audit schedule, the eligible and ineligible lists are displayed in the secretariat on Feb 14, 2022 and notices are served on ineligible students by village/ward secretariats and colleges. Those who are having grievances against being identified as ineligible (in the six step validation done at the state level or in the verification done by the village/ward secretariats) are given an opportunity to file objections with evidences in proof of their eligibility. Such objections need to be disposed of by the MPDOs/Municipal Commissioners concerned based on merits of the case and the verification guidelines issued by this office. The last date for disposal of objections is Feb 26th, so that proposal for release of budget can be sent to government by Feb 28th.

In view of complaints received on misuse of logins of MPDO/M.C for disposal of the objections, digital signature is made mandatory now for approval of objections.

All MPDOs/Municipal Commissioners are requested to carefully examine and verify the objections displayed in their logins on day to day basis, and dispose them as per merits of the case and as per the circular instructions on verification displayed in the home page of their login in nava sakam. A copy of the previous guidelines are enclosed for ready reference.

The objections shall not be kept pending in their logins without confirming their eligibility status beyond Feb 26, 2022.
